Kevin Valentine works across disciplines creating work in paint, print, video, performance and installation. He has a BA in Art and Philosophy from Principia College, an MEd from Loyola University and an MFA in Interdisciplinary Arts & Media from Columbia College Chicago. Valentine's Widowsweave project, the first project for his Artistactivist organization, highlights the living conditions of the overlooked survivors of Iraq's thirty years of turmoil. Widowsweave project is the natural outcome of twenty years of art focusing on the relationship between the U.S., Iraq, and justice.
